Chapter F11.5 — 120 Questions, 120 Minutes, 300 Marks, Set on the Law as in Force

Module	Foundation Layer — Module 11 — PYQ Analysis, Mocks and Final Revision
Chapter	Chapter F11.5
Topic	Full-length mock examination, second paper
Version	v1.0
Compiled	22 August 2026
Exam stage	Recruitment Test (RT)

MUST MASTER · DO NOT READ THIS CHAPTER. SIT IT

This is a complete 120-question paper and it is worth what it is worth only under examination conditions. Read it casually and you have spent the material and gained almost nothing — the diagnosis lives in the timing and the pressure, not in the questions.

Before you begin:

Condition
Time	120 minutes, timed, one sitting. Set an alarm
Marking	+2.5 correct, -0.8333 wrong, 0 blank
Materials	Rough paper and a pen. No calculator, no notes, no phone
Method	The three-pass method — F11.1 §1.3
Answers	On a separate sheet , numbered 1 to 120. Do not mark this document
Afterwards	Score it, then read every explanation in §14, including for the ones you got right

Then complete §15 before anything else. An unanalysed mock is a mock wasted.

TRAP · WHAT IS DIFFERENT ABOUT THIS PAPER

Mock 1 was set to the observed shape of the paper. Mock 2 is set to the same shape but harder, and it is harder in one specific and deliberate way: it is built out of the traps catalogued in F11.4.

Nineteen items in this paper are constructed on a named trap code. The superseded figure appears as a distractor eleven times. There are four count-format items (how many of the above), which F11.4 §3.1 identifies as the most punishing format in use, against Mock 1's two. Three items offer a repealed Act as though it were live law.

Expect your score to fall relative to Mock 1. That is the design, not a verdict. What matters is whether the pattern of loss matches your F11.4 §9.4 trap signature.

STUDY SESSION · CHAPTER F11.5

Not a study session. A two-hour examination, then about ninety minutes of checking and analysis. Budget half a day.

Section	Content
§1	Instructions and the paper's composition
§2 to §12	The paper — 120 questions in eleven parts
§13	The answer key
§14	Explanations, part by part, each tagged with its trap code
§15	Score analysis, including the trap-signature cross-check
§16, §17	What the mock was testing, and the attempt protocol

Sit this at week 10, two weeks after Mock 1 and with two weeks still available to act on the result. If you are running F8.0's calendar, that is the Saturday of week 10.

NOTE · THE COMPOSITION, AND WHY IT IS FIXED

The eleven parts and their question counts are identical to Mock 1, because both are built to the same planning weightage — and because holding the composition constant is what makes two mocks comparable. A change in your Part V score between Mock 1 and Mock 2 means something. It would mean nothing if the number of Part V questions had also changed.

A real paper will interleave the subjects rather than label them. The parts are labelled here so that §15's diagnosis is possible at all. F11.1 §1.3 explains why the interleaving matters, and §17 tells you how to simulate it on a second sitting.

1. Instructions

Part	Subject	Questions	Marks
I	General English	20	50
II	Quantitative Aptitude and Reasoning	12	30
III	General Science and Computer Applications	17	42.5
IV	Indian Polity and Governance	13	32.5
V	Labour Laws and Industrial Relations	12	30

X	Current Affairs	8	20
XI	Insurance	1	2.5
Total		120	300

Every question carries 2.5 marks. One third of that, 0.8333, is deducted for a wrong answer. A blank scores zero. Per F11.1 §1.2, a blind guess is worth exactly zero and any question on which you can hard-eliminate one option is worth attempting.

Passage for Questions 15 to 18.

Social insurance rests on a proposition that is easy to state and hard to sustain: that risks which are unbearable for one person become manageable when shouldered by many. The arithmetic is the arithmetic of the insurance pool, but the politics is not. A private insurer may decline the applicant most likely to claim; a social insurance scheme is obliged to include precisely that person, and is therefore obliged to compel the participation of those least likely to claim. Compulsion is not a regrettable feature of social security. It is the mechanism.

This explains a pattern that puzzles observers of Indian social security. Coverage has historically been tied to the formal enterprise, not to the worker, because the enterprise is where compulsion could be administered. Where there was a registered employer with a payroll, contributions could be deducted and enforced; where there was not, the worker fell outside, however great the need. The consequence was that the schemes reached the workers who needed them least intensely and missed those who needed them most. Recent architecture attempts to detach entitlement from the enterprise, extending obligations to aggregators and platforms and building worker-level registration. Whether it succeeds turns less on generosity than on administration: whether a contribution can be collected at all where there is no payroll to deduct it from.

14. Explanations

NOTE · READ THE TRAP COLUMN, NOT ONLY THE ANSWER

Each explanation is one line, a chapter reference, and where applicable the F11.4 trap code the item was built on. The chapter teaches; the mock only diagnoses.

The trap column is the point of this paper. Collect the codes you missed and take them to §15.2.

14.1 Part I — General English

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
1	c	—	Perspicacious — having keen insight. (a) plays on perspire , which is the intended confusion. F8.1
2	a	—	Parsimonious means excessively frugal, so the opposite is lavish . (b) restates the word rather than opposing it — the standard antonym trap. F8.1
3	d	—	Omnipresent . The omni- family is a fixed set and all four members are examinable. F8.1
4	b	—	To carry the can — to take the blame for someone else's fault. F8.1
5	b	T-22	The number of takes a singular verb, so have exceeded is wrong. The plural noun applications sitting next to the verb is what pulls you. F8.4
6	d	T-22	Each is singular, so their annual return must be its . The error is in the last part, where attention is weakest. F8.4
7	a	—	Desist from . F8.4
8	c	—	At odds with — the idiom takes the plural odds . F8.1
9	a	—	Insist takes on plus a gerund: insisted on seeing . F8.4
10	c	—	Q-S-P-R. Q states the claim, S quantifies it, P turns with Yet , R resolves. The word Yet fixes P after S. F8.2
11	b	—	Q-S-P-R. Q introduces the definition, S describes it, P gives its purpose, R evaluates its effect. F8.2
12	d	—	Accommodation — two c , two m . The most frequently misspelt word in Indian competitive papers. F8.1
13	d	—	Present perfect active becomes present perfect passive: has been recommended . F8.4
14	b	—	An interrogative becomes a statement in reported speech, so the subject precedes the verb and the tense back-shifts: where I had kept . (a) keeps the interrogative order. F8.4
15	c	—	The passage says compulsion "is the mechanism", not a regrettable feature. F8.3
16	a	—	Explicit: the enterprise "is where compulsion could be administered". F8.3

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
17	c	T-04	Those reached by the schemes were the formal-sector workers. The phrase describes them, not the excluded. Requires the sentence's logic, not a keyword match. F8.3
18	b	T-08	The author is hopeful but conditions success on administration — a hedged position, and hedged options are usually the correct ones. F8.3
19	a	—	Each of plus plural noun takes a singular verb. F8.4
20	d	—	Reverted back, mutually interdependent on each other and discuss about are all pleonastic. F8.4

14.2 Part II — Quantitative Aptitude and Reasoning

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
21	a	T-09	Employer's 12% of ₹15,000 = ₹1,800; the pension share is 8.33% = ₹1,249.50; the balance to provident fund is ₹550.50 , being 3.67%. (b) and (d) are the pension figures and (c) the whole contribution. F8.5
22	b	—	Interest for 3 years = 9,660 - 8,400 = ₹1,260, so ₹420 a year. $P = 8,400 - 840 =$ ₹7,560 . F8.5
23	c	—	Difference for two years = $P(r/100)^2 = P/100 = 120$, so $P =$ ₹12,000 . F8.5
24	d	—	Net = $+25 - 25 - 6.25 =$ 6.25% lower . An equal rise and fall always produces a loss . (a) is the intuition being tested. F8.5
25	a	—	Equal distances require the harmonic mean: $2(30)(60)/90 =$ 40 km/h . (b) 45 is the arithmetic mean, correct only for equal times . F8.5
26	b	—	$1/12 + 1/18 - 1/36 = (3 + 2 - 1)/36 = 4/36$, so 9 minutes . The outlet must be subtracted . F8.5
27	c	—	In at least one = $60 + 45 - 25 = 80\%$, so neither = 20% of 200 = 40 . F8.7
28	d	—	Volume scales as the cube: $2^3 =$ 8 times . (b) is the surface-area factor. F8.6
29	a	T-18	Some officers are commissioners converts to some commissioners are officers , so II follows. I does not — no overlap between inspectors and commissioners is established. F8.8
30	b	—	Each letter advances by one: WAGES » XBHFT . F8.8
31	c	—	North 5, east 3, south 5 returns him to the original latitude, 3 km east . The question asks for displacement, not facing. F8.8
32	d	—	Her mother's only daughter-in-law is her brother's wife, whose only son is her nephew . F8.8

14.3 Part III — General Science and Computer Applications

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
33	b	T-16	At the highest point velocity is zero but acceleration remains g downward . Zero velocity does not imply zero acceleration. F9.1
34	b	—	Linear momentum is conserved in every collision; kinetic energy only in an elastic one. F9.1
35	d	T-18	Pressure depends on height and density only — not on area, volume or shape. This is the hydrostatic paradox. F9.1
36	b	—	A concave lens always gives a virtual, erect, diminished image. Always is true here, which is why T-07 must never decide alone. F9.2
37	b	T-21	Weber is flux; the tesla is flux density . The pair is swapped more often than any other unit pair. F9.2
38	c	—	Calcium and magnesium ions form an insoluble scum. F9.3
39	a	—	Copper, zinc and nickel — and German silver contains no silver . F9.3
40	b	—	7 at 25 °C. F9.3
41	d	—	Vitamin K is required for the synthesis of clotting factors. F9.4
42	c	T-21	The sandfly . Anopheles carries malaria, Culex filariasis, the tsetse fly sleeping sickness. F9.4
43	c	T-03	I, II and III are correct; IV is false — tuberculosis is bacterial . Three of four, so the count is only three . One misclassified disease destroys the whole item. F9.4
44	d	—	The stapes , in the middle ear. (a) is the longest bone, offered as the mirror. F9.4
45	c	T-21	The register , inside the CPU. Cache is second-fastest and is the option most often chosen. F9.5
46	a	—	A nibble is 4 bits , half a byte. F9.5
47	d	T-21	SMTP sends; POP3 and IMAP receive. F9.7
48	a	T-21	A switch works at the data link layer using MAC addresses; a router at the network layer using IP addresses. F9.7
49	a	T-21	TRUNCATE is DDL and removes all rows without logging each deletion; DELETE is DML and can be rolled back. F9.6

14.4 Part IV — Indian Polity and Governance

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
50	c	T-18	A joint sitting under Article 108 lies for an ordinary bill only. It is not available for a Money Bill or a Constitutional Amendment Bill — the exception candidates forget
51	c	—	Article 360 , financial emergency, has never been invoked. Article 365 is not an emergency provision
52	b	T-18	Habeas corpus is the only writ available against a private person
53	b	T-09	The 91st Amendment , 2003, deleted the split exception; the 52nd created the Tenth Schedule. Candidates routinely state the deleted exception as live law
54	c	T-21	Article 358 suspends Article 19 automatically and only in an external emergency. (b) describes Article 359
55	d	T-12	The Central Vigilance Commission is statutory . The other three are constitutional
56	b	—	The Public Account , because the Government holds these moneys as a trustee, so no appropriation is required. A cross-domain item joining polity to social security
57	a	T-09	A token cut reduces the demand by ₹100 . (b) ₹1 is the policy cut and (c) is the economy cut — all three in one option set
58	a	T-10	Entry 22 of the Concurrent List. Entry 23 is social security, Entry 24 welfare of labour. Labour is not a State List subject
59	a	T-10	The 42nd Amendment , 1976
60	d	T-21	A Governor may suspend, remit or commute a death sentence but cannot pardon a court-martial sentence or pardon a death sentence. The two differences are the whole question
61	d	—	The Rajya Sabha is a permanent House: it may be prorogued but is never dissolved
62	d	T-10	243ZE — Metropolitan Planning Committee. 243ZD is the District Planning Committee, and the two are constantly swapped

14.5 Part V — Labour Laws and Industrial Relations

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
63	a	T-09	21 November 2025 — commencement, not enactment. (c) is the date the provident fund, pension and insurance schemes were replaced, and it is the intended confusion. F11.4 §5
64	b	—	29 central Acts: Wages 4, Industrial Relations 3, Social Security 9, OSH 13. F11.4 §5.1
65	c	T-23	300 under the Code. (b) 100 was correct until 21 November 2025 and is now purely a distractor
66	d	—	The OSH and WC Code subsumes 13. Social Security subsumes 9, Industrial Relations 3, Wages 4
67	b	—	51% for a sole negotiating union; below that a negotiating council is constituted
68	b	T-03	Only III and IV. I is false — the ID Act is repealed . II is false — the 1926 Act contained no recognition machinery at all. Two false statements about repealed law inside one count item. F11.4 §6.1
69	a	—	15 days wages , credited to the Worker Re-skilling Fund
70	c	T-23	50 under the OSH Code; 20 was the repealed 1970 Act figure
71	d	T-12	The Payment of Gratuity Act went into the Code on Social Security , not the Code on Wages. The other three are the Code on Wages' four, with the Equal Remuneration Act
72	a	T-21	The Central Government fixes the floor wage; the appropriate government fixes minimum wages. (c) is the phrase that belongs to the other concept
73	c	T-05	14 days, in all industrial establishments — the Code extended to all what the ID Act confined to public utility services. (a) is the repealed position
74	d	T-13	There is no "Code on Industrial Safety and Welfare". A plausible, non-existent name — and note it borrows real words from the genuine OSH Code

14.6 Part VI — Social Security and EPFO

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
75	c	T-09	29 June 2026. (a) is the labour Codes' commencement — three dates within nine months, all offered for one another
76	d	T-03	All four. The 2026 pension scheme replaced both EPS-95 and the Family Pension Scheme, 1971, which is the fact that makes the count four rather than three
77	a	T-09	₹15,000. The widely reported ₹25,000 is approved but not notified , so it is not the answer. Only notified is law
78	b	T-09	1.16%. (a) is the digit reversal, (c) the employer's pension diversion
79	c	T-09	₹7 lakh. ₹6 lakh was correct only before April 2021
80	b	—	Recovery Officers, under Chapter III of the Code. The most directly relevant fact in the syllabus to this post. F10.3 §1.3
81	a	—	₹1,000, expressly retained by the 2026 scheme
82	c	—	Twenty days, with 12% interest where EPFO delays — new under the 2026 scheme
83	d	T-09	8.25%, a third consecutive year at that rate

14.7 Part VII — History, Freedom Movement and Culture

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
84	a	T-21	Sarojini Naidu , 1925. Annie Besant was the first woman president, 1917 — a different question with a different answer
85	b	T-21	Madras Labour Union , 1918, founded by B. P. Wadia. Lokhande's 1884 body was an association , not a trade union
86	b	—	Lala Lajpat Rai . N. M. Joshi is more strongly associated with labour organisation, which is why he is the distractor
87	a	T-21	1919 introduced dyarchy in the provinces; 1935 abolished it there and introduced it at the Centre. Learn the migration
88	c	T-21	Reserved seats within the general electorate . The Pact changed the form of reservation; it did not abolish it
89	c	T-19	Champaran , 1917. Ahmedabad was the first hunger strike and Kheda the first non-cooperation, both 1918 — three "firsts" inside two years
90	d	—	Gandhi , alone, following the Gandhi-Irwin Pact. The Congress attended only the second of the three conferences
91	d	—	Singapore , October 1943
92	a	—	Tilak — Kesari in Marathi and Maratha in English. Check the language as well as the person
93	d	T-19	3-2-1-4 : Madras Labour Union 1918, AITUC 1920, Trade Unions Act 1926, Royal Commission 1929. The first central trade union body existed before any law to register it

14.8 Part VIII — Accounting, Auditing and Statistics

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
94	d	T-12	Conservatism is a convention , not a fundamental assumption. The three assumptions are going concern, consistency and accrual — and consistency appears in both lists, which is what makes the item work. F6.2
95	b	T-21	A provision is a charge against profit and is mandatory even in a loss year ; a reserve is an appropriation. F6.2
96	a	—	Complete omission preserves the equality of debits and credits, so the trial balance cannot detect it. Derive the rule rather than memorising the list. F6.1
97	c	—	Constant under SLM; falling under WDV. F6.4
98	b	T-21	Intangibles . Depletion is for wasting natural resources, depreciation for tangible fixed assets. F6.4
99	c	—	Financing for a non-financial enterprise. For a financial enterprise it moves to operating — the qualification that makes absolute options false. F6.5
100	b	—	2 : 1 ; the quick ratio benchmark is 1 : 1. F6.5
101	c	T-21	Verification covers existence, ownership and value; vouching examines evidence for a transaction, and valuation sits inside verification. F6.7
102	d	T-21	Qualified — true and fair except for stated matters. An adverse opinion says they are not true and fair. Not synonyms. F6.7
103	a	T-21	Base year . Paasche uses current-year quantities. L before P as base before current . F6.8
104	d	T-21	The coefficient of variation is unit-free; standard deviation carries the data's units and cannot compare across units. F6.8
105	a	T-21	Type I — rejecting a true null. Type II accepts a false one. F6.8

14.9 Parts IX to XI — Economy, Current Affairs, Insurance

Q	A	Trap	Explanation
106	b	T-21	CRR is held with the RBI and earns nothing; SLR is held by the bank itself and does earn. The location is the discriminator. F4.2
107	b	T-09	The Standing Deposit Facility , which replaced the fixed-rate reverse repo as the floor in 2022 and is uncollateralised . (a) is the superseded answer. F4.2
108	a	T-22	Excluding borrowings . Omit those two words and the quantity is trivially zero. F4.3
109	c	—	WPI excludes services entirely — its single most examined feature. F4.2
110	a	T-12	The Labour Bureau compiles CPI-IW, the basis of dearness allowance. The NSO compiles CPI-Combined. Directly relevant to this post. F4.2
111	d	T-12	The current account , as secondary income. Placing remittances in the capital account is the standard error. F4.2
112	b	—	Arvind Panagariya , succeeding N. K. Singh of the Fifteenth. The award period begins 2026, which is why it is topical. F10.3
113	b	T-09	5 February 2026 , automatic route, with LIC still capped at 20%. F7.1, F10.3
114	c	T-09	125 days under the Act of 2025, in force 1 July 2026. 100 days is the superseded MGNREGA figure and the intended distractor. F4.4, F10.3
115	a	T-09	1 April 2026 . F10.3
116	c	T-05	It coordinates contributions and not benefits , with a 60-month detachment exemption — and EPFO itself administers it. F10.3 §1.5
117	a	—	₹5 lakh . F10.3 §1.3
118	d	T-01	87 and 98 — freedom of association and collective bargaining. India has ratified the other six fundamental conventions
119	d	T-09	22 September 2025 . F10.3
120	c	T-21	Assurance . Life insurance is not a contract of indemnity, because a life cannot be valued — and it follows that subrogation and contribution do not apply either. F7.1

MUST MASTER · COMPARE AGAINST MOCK 1, NOT AGAINST 300

The composition of this paper is identical to F11.2's, deliberately, so that the comparison is valid. Put the two side by side.

Total marks			A fall of 15 to 25 is expected — this paper is harder by design
Accuracy			A fall in accuracy matters far more than a fall in total. It means the traps worked
Attempts			If attempts fell sharply, you lost time, not knowledge
Marks lost to negatives			Above about 15 means elimination discipline is failing

The benchmark remains F11.1 §1.2's: about 100 attempts at 80% accuracy, roughly 183 of 300. On this paper, treat 165 as the equivalent performance.

15.2 The trap cross-check — the point of this paper

Nineteen items were built on a named trap code. List the codes you missed, then compare with the signature you derived in F11.4 §9.4.

CHECK YOURSELF · THE THREE READINGS OF THIS TABLE

If T-09 dominates, you have a slot problem, not a knowledge problem. Build F11.4 §5.2's ledger on one sheet, third column included, and revise it as a unit. Fourteen items in this paper turn on it.

If T-21 dominates, go to F11.4 §6 and read it weekly. Twenty-one items here are pure pair discrimination, and it is the largest single category in the paper — as it is in the real one.

If T-03 dominates, the format is beating you rather than the content. Drill the three-part count protocol in F11.4 §3.1 until the T/F/? marking is automatic.

ONE LINE FOR THE INTERVIEW The 2025-26 transition matters less for the numbers it changed, most of which it preserved, than for the instruments it replaced — which is why a candidate can know every figure and still misstate the law.

17. Five-Minute Wall Sheet — The Attempt Protocol

MEMORY · CUT THIS OUT AND USE IT FOR MOCK 3

THREE PASSES 55 min everything you know cold · 45 min the marked ones · 15 min probability and audit

CHECKPOINTS Q60 by minute 30 · pass 1 done by 55 · pass 2 done by 100 · bubbling done by 115

NINETY SECONDS MAXIMUM in pass 2. The minutes already spent are gone

BUBBLE IN BLOCKS OF TEN. Check question number against row number at every boundary

LAST FIVE MINUTES first bubble of each block of ten. Twelve checks, not 120

ELIMINATE ONE OPTION AND YOU MUST ANSWER. Blind guess is worth zero, not less

HARD ELIMINATION ONLY. I don't recognise it is not a reason

CIRCLE THE NEGATION. This paper had six negative stems

A NUMBER YOU RECOGNISE BUT CANNOT SLOT IS A TRAP. Which instrument? Which year?

NEVER CHANGE AN ANSWER IN THE LAST TWO MINUTES ON A FEELING

YOUR PREVIOUS ANSWERS CARRY NO INFORMATION. The key is 30/30/30/30

SIMULATE INTERLEAVING NEXT TIME Attempt this paper's parts out of order — VIII, then I, then V, then III — because the real paper will not group them for you
