Chapter	Chapter F11.2
Topic	Full-length mock examination
Version	v1.0
Compiled	16 August 2026
Exam stage	Recruitment Test (RT)

MUST MASTER · DO NOT READ THIS CHAPTER. SIT IT

This is a complete 120-question paper, and it is worth what it is worth only if it is taken under examination conditions. Read the questions casually now and you have spent the material and gained almost nothing — the diagnosis is in the timing and the pressure, not in the questions.

Before you begin:Condition

Time 120 minutes, timed, one sitting. Set an alarm

Marking +2.5 correct, -0.8333 wrong, 0 blank

Materials Rough paper and a pen. No calculator, no notes, no phone

Method Use the three-pass method — F11.1 §1.3

Answers On a separate sheet, numbered 1 to 120. Do not mark this document

Afterwards Score it, then read every explanation in §14, including for questions you got right

Then complete the score analysis in §15 before you do anything else. An unanalysed mock is a mock wasted; F11.3 §2 sets out why, and gives the sheet.

STUDY SESSION · CHAPTER F11.2

This is not a study session. It is a two-hour examination, followed by about ninety minutes of checking and analysis. Budget half a day.

Section	Content
§1	Instructions and the paper's composition
§2 to §12	The paper — 120 questions in eleven parts
§13	The answer key, for scoring
§14	Explanations, part by part
§15	The score analysis sheet
§16, §17	What the mock was testing, and the attempt protocol

F8.0's calendar places Full Mock 1 on Saturday of week 8. That is the intended point: after the first pass through Module 8 and the interleaving weeks, with four weeks still available to act on the result.

NOTE · WHY THE PAPER IS SET OUT IN LABELLED PARTS

A real paper may interleave subjects, and F11.1 §1.3 explains why that matters — a cheap vocabulary question can sit at number 95.

This mock is nevertheless arranged in labelled parts, for one reason: it makes the score analysis in §15 possible. A per-module score tells you where to spend the remaining weeks; an undifferentiated total of 183 tells you nothing.

So use the parts for diagnosis, but do not let them change how you attempt the paper. Apply the three-pass method across the whole 120, not part by part — skip an expensive question in Part III and come back to it after Part XI, exactly as you would in the hall. Mocks 2 to 5, assembled per F11.3 §3, should be interleaved to remove this scaffolding once the diagnosis has been done.

2.3 Reading comprehension

Questions 16 to 20 relate to the following passage.

The consolidation of twenty-nine central labour statutes into four codes was presented as a simplification, and in a formal sense it is one: an employer who once consulted a dozen Acts now consults four. But the more consequential change is not the reduction in number. It is the adoption of a single definition of wages across all four codes. Under the earlier regime each statute defined the term for its own purposes, and the resulting divergence produced decades of litigation over which allowances counted for provident fund contributions and which did not. A uniform definition removes that question at a stroke, and in doing so it alters the cost of employment rather than merely the paperwork surrounding it. Employers who had structured remuneration so as to keep the wage component small now find that the structure no longer achieves its object. Whether the codes simplify compliance is therefore a smaller question than whether they redistribute cost, and it is the second question that has governed the pace of implementation.

Q16. The passage is mainly concerned with arguing that (a) the uniform definition of wages matters more than the reduction in the number of statutes (b) the codes have failed to simplify compliance for employers (c) litigation over allowances is likely to continue unchanged (d) employers have generally welcomed the codes

Q17. According to the passage, the divergence of definitions under the earlier regime produced (a) an increase in the number of statutes (b) uniformity of compliance practice (c) prolonged litigation about which allowances counted for provident fund contributions (d) a decline in employment

Q18. It follows from the passage that an employer who had structured remuneration to keep the wage component small would now find (a) his compliance burden substantially reduced (b) that the structure no longer serves its purpose (c) that provident fund contributions are no longer payable at all (d) that the codes do not apply to his establishment

Q19. The expression at a stroke as used in the passage means (a) immediately and completely (b) gradually and in stages (c) by a decision of the courts (d) only with considerable difficulty

Q20. The author's purpose is best described as (a) condemning the codes as a failure (b) describing the procedure for compliance under the codes (c) praising the reduction in the number of statutes (d) arguing that the codes' real significance lies in redistributing cost rather than in simplification

14. Explanations

NOTE · THESE EXPLANATIONS ARE DELIBERATELY BRIEF

The chapter banks in Modules 4 to 10 give full reasoning. Here each explanation is one line plus a chapter reference, because the purpose of a mock is diagnosis, not instruction.

Where you got a question wrong, go to the chapter named. That is the whole mechanism: the mock tells you where to read, and the chapter does the teaching.

14.1 Part I — General English

Q	A	Explanation
1	c	Peremptory — admitting no discussion or refusal. F8.1
2	a	Perfunctory — done as a formality, without care. Not the same as cursor in emphasis, but close
3	d	Intransigent — unwilling to compromise
4	b	Innocuous — harmless. The negative-sounding prefix misleads
5	b	Profligate is recklessly extravagant, so the opposite is thrifty . (a), (c) and (d) are near-synonyms — F8.1 §8.2's three-synonym distractor set
6	d	The continuation " produced within a day " is positive, so the blank must be positive: exemplary . Read the charge of the sentence — F8.1 §2.2
7	a	Obviate — to remove a difficulty or make it unnecessary. Not "make obvious", despite the look of it
8	c	" They cannot both apply " defines mutually exclusive ; (a), (b) and (d) all imply the opposite
9	a	Carry the can — take the blame
10	c	Ex gratia — as a favour, without admission of liability. F8.1 §7.3
11	b	Q P S R . Q alone opens (full statutory name); P gives the threshold; S's " This threshold " must follow it; R qualifies. F8.2 §2
12	d	Q S R P . Q announces the two categories, S and R take them in the order named, and P's " nevertheless " follows the loss in R
13	d	Q S P R . Q defines; S's " It requires " refers to the Code; P explains the difficulty; R's " therefore " concludes
14	b	Q S R P . Q defines; S's " Its agreement therefore " follows; R gives the counter-instance; P concludes from it
15	c	S . P begins " These are ", Q implies a set already introduced, R says " Each of them " — all three depend on something earlier
16	a	Claim plus qualification: the reduction in number is formal, the definition of wages is consequential. (b) overstates — the author concedes formal simplification
17	c	Stated explicitly — " decades of litigation over which allowances counted "

Q	A	Explanation
18	b	The passage says such employers " find that the structure no longer achieves its object ". (c) is an overreach — contributions are still payable, on a wider base
19	a	At a stroke — immediately and completely
20	d	The last sentence states it: the redistribution of cost is the larger question. (a) is too hostile; the author is analytical — F8.3 §3.5

14.2 Part II — Quantitative Aptitude

Q	A	Explanation
21	a	12 parts, one part ₹600, B = $4 \times 600 = \text{₹}2,400$. F8.5 §2.2
22	d	Total rises by 24, so the average rises by $24/12 = 2$: 47 . F8.5 §3.2
23	c	$1.20 \times 0.75 = 0.90$, a 10% decrease . Percentages do not add — F8.5 §1.3
24	b	LCM 30 units; A 2/day, B 3/day, together 5 » 6 days . F8.5 §6.1
25	b	$4s + 16 = 2(s + 16)$ gives $s = 8$. Check: 32 and 8 become 48 and 24
26	a	Milk 42 is unchanged; for 7 : 5, water must be 30, so add 12 litres . F8.5 §2.3
27	d	$\frac{1}{3} \times \frac{22}{7} \times 49 \times 9 = \text{462 cm}^3$. F8.6 §2.1
28	c	Half-chord 15, distance 8, so $r^2 = 225 + 64 = 289$ and $r = \text{17 cm}$ — the 8-15-17 triple. F8.6 §4.2
29	d	Sum of roots = $-b/a = 15/5 = 3$. (a) is the product. F8.7 §2.1
30	c	Sum 10 arises in 3 ways of 36 — (4,6), (5,5), (6,4) — so 1/12 . F8.7 §4.2
31	b	$h = 40 \times \tan 60^\circ = \text{40 root 3 m}$. (c) divides instead of multiplying. F8.6 §6
32	a	92 on a base of 460 = 20% . (d) 38% uses 2024 as the base — the wrong-base trap of F8.8 §4.3

14.3 Part III — General Science and Computer Applications

Q	A	Explanation
33	a	Pascal = N m^{-2} . F9.1 §1.2
34	b	Impulse is a vector (force $\times$ time). Work, energy and pressure are scalars — F9.1 §1.3
35	d	$f = 1/P = 1/(-2.5) \text{ m} = -0.4 \text{ m} = \textbf{-40 cm}$. The sign is retained. F9.2
36	c	Reflection of sound
37	c	The ohm
38	d	7
39	a	Rusting is oxidation — iron combines with oxygen and water. F9.3
40	b	Carbon dioxide , by volume, though methane is more potent per molecule — the question asks about contribution, not potency
41	b	The nephron . F9.4
42	c	Rickets in children (osteomalacia in adults). Scurvy is vitamin C, beriberi B1, night blindness A
43	a	1,024 bytes = 2^{10} . (b) is the decimal convention, (d) confuses bits with bytes. F9.5
44	d	$8 + 4 + 0 + 1 = \textbf{13}$
45	d	An operating system . The other three are application software. F9.6
46	a	Random Access Memory
47	c	RAM loses its contents when power is removed. F9.5
48	b	A router , at the network layer. A switch is data-link, a hub and repeater physical. F9.7
49	c	<code></code> . <code></code> is ordered and <code></code> is an item within either. F9.7

14.4 Part IV — Indian Polity and Governance

51	b	Also the 42nd , which inserted Part IVA and Article 51A
52	d	Article 32 — the right to move the Supreme Court, called by Ambedkar the heart and soul of the Constitution
53	a	Part IV (Articles 36–51). Part III is Fundamental Rights; Part IVA is Fundamental Duties
54	d	The right to property ceased to be a Fundamental Right on the 44th Amendment (1978) and is now Article 300A, a legal right
55	b	250 — 238 representatives of States and Union Territories plus 12 nominated. (c) 238 and (d) 233 are the component figures, offered as the whole
56	c	The Lok Sabha , on the President's recommendation — Article 110. F4.3 §1.1
57	b	An electoral college of the elected members of both Houses and of the State Legislative Assemblies — note elected members only
58	d	Article 148
59	c	Article 360 . 352 is a National Emergency and 356 President's rule
60	a	Habeas corpus
61	d	The distribution of legislative powers — the Union, State and Concurrent Lists. Languages are the Eighth Schedule, defection the Tenth
62	c	Article 76

69	c	Industrial Tribunals and a National Industrial Tribunal
70	b	The Code on Wages

73	b	The Code on Wages
74	a	The Code on Social Security

15. Score Analysis

Complete this before you do anything else. F11.3 §2 explains what to do with it.

Part	Subject	Questions	Attempted	Correct	Wrong	Accuracy	Marks
I	General English	20
II	Quantitative Aptitude	12
III	Science and Computers	17
IV	Polity	13
V	Labour Laws	12
VI	Social Security and EPFO	9
VII	History and Culture	10
VIII	Accounting and Statistics	12
IX	Economy	6
X	Current Affairs	8
XI	Insurance	1
Total		120

MUST MASTER · THE FOUR NUMBERS THAT MATTER, AND WHAT EACH TELLS YOU

Do not look only at the total. Four figures diagnose four different problems, and each has a different remedy.

Accuracy = correct ÷ attempted	Below 75%	You are guessing too loosely. Attempt fewer, eliminate harder
Attempt rate = attempted ÷ 120	Below 80%	You are too slow or too cautious. Work on speed in the cheap formats and on the elimination rule
Weakest part by accuracy	—	Re-read that chapter , do its bank again
Marks lost to negative marking = $0.8333 \times \text{wrong}$	Above about 15	Your elimination discipline is failing; re-read F11.1 §1.2

The benchmark from F11.1 §1.2: about 100 attempts at 80% accuracy gives roughly 183 of 300. If your total is well below that, the four figures above will tell you whether the cause is speed, accuracy or a specific subject — and those three faults need entirely different treatment in the weeks remaining.

One caution about Parts IV, V, VI and VII. Modules 1, 2, 3 and 5 are not in this repository (register §9), so a poor score in those parts cannot be remedied by re-reading a chapter here. Use your own material — and note that Part V's answers reflect the labour codes as in force, which older notes may contradict.

16. One-Minute Revision — What This Mock Was Testing

ONE-MINUTE REVISION · CHAPTER F11.2

THE SHAPE 120 questions · 300 marks · +2.5 / -0.8333 / 0 · key balanced 30/30/30/30, so no letter to fall back on

THE NEGATIVE STEMS Q54, Q71, Q95 — which is not · re-read the last six words and underline the not

THE SUPERSEDED FACT appeared six times · Q77 ₹15,000 not ₹25,000 (a proposal is not law) · Q80 ₹1,000 not ₹7,500 · Q110 two GST slabs not four · Q111 41% not 42% · Q112 fertility below replacement · Q114 the Income-tax Act 2025 · prefer the more recent arrangement when two options are both plausible

THE MATCHED PAIR, CORRECTLY COMPUTED Q34 impulse against work · Q95 compensating error against the three the trial balance does catch · Q101 reserve capital against capital reserve · Q48 router against switch · Q81 Section 7A against 7Q and 14B · Q49 against

THE ADJACENT NUMBER Q55 250 against its components 238 and 233 · Q43 1,024 bytes against 1,000 and against bits

THE WRONG BASE Q32 — 20% from 2025, not 38% from 2024 · Q23 percentages do not add

THE UNIT OR SIGN Q35 keep the minus sign · Q31 multiply by root 3, do not divide

THE DEPENDENT OPENER Q11, Q12, Q13, Q14, Q15 — a pronoun, a demonstrative or "these are" cannot open a paragraph

THE POSITIVE CHARGE Q6 — the continuation clause fixes the blank's polarity before you consider meaning

THE PAIRED YEARS Q88 and Q90 are both 1919 — the Rowlatt Act and Jallianwala Bagh · Q85 1920, Q86 1930, Q87 1942

WHAT TO DO NOW score it · read every explanation · complete §15 · then go to F11.3 §2 for the error log and §3 for how to assemble Mocks 2 to 5

THE BENCHMARK about 100 attempts at 80% » roughly 183 of 300. Diagnose speed, accuracy and subject separately — they need different remedies

17. Five-Minute Wall Sheet — The Attempt Protocol

FIVE-MINUTE WALL SHEET · CHAPTER F11.2

PASS 1 — 45 MINUTES — ANSWER ONLY WHAT YOU KNOW INSTANTLY

PASS 2 — 55 MINUTES — THE CALCULABLE ONES

PASS 3 — 20 MINUTES — ELIMINATE AND GUESS. FILL EVERY BUBBLE YOU CAN NARROW

BLIND GUESS = 0 · ELIMINATE ONE = +0.28 · ELIMINATE TWO = +0.83

IF YOU CAN RULE OUT ONE OPTION, ANSWER

BLANK ONLY IF YOU HAVE NO BASIS, OR IF AN OPTION FEELS TOO FAMILIAR

UNDERLINE THE WORD NOT

RE-READ THE LAST SIX WORDS OF THE STEM AND OF THE OPTION

CONVERT UNITS BEFORE CHOOSING A FORMULA

NAME THE BASE BEFORE DIVIDING

WHEN TWO OPTIONS ARE BOTH PLAUSIBLE, TAKE THE MORE RECENT ARRANGEMENT

A WRONG OPTION IS USUALLY A CORRECT FACT ABOUT SOMETHING ADJACENT

DO NOT LEAVE THE HALL EARLY. USE THE FULL 120 MINUTES ON PASS 3

AFTER THE MOCK: SCORE · READ EVERY EXPLANATION · COMPLETE THE ANALYSIS · LOG EVERY ERROR

ONE LINE FOR THE INTERVIEW A mock is worth taking only under the conditions of the examination, because what it measures is not whether you know the material but whether you can retrieve it accurately at one question a minute — and those are different capacities requiring different practice.

ACTION · NEXT

F11.3 — The Mock Protocol, Score Analysis and Final Revision. It sets out how to sit the remaining mocks, how to assemble them from the banks in this manual, the error-log discipline, the four-week revision schedule, and the day-before and day-of protocol.

Do not sit another mock until you have read F11.3 §2 and acted on this one.
